CONFIGURESOFT APPOINTS MARCO BUSSADORI VICE PRESIDENT OF EMEA

Seasoned International Executive to Build on Company Success, Accelerate EMEA Expansion

Colorado Springs, CO – September 25, 2006 – Configuresoft, the leading enterprise server configuration management solutions provider, today announced the appointment of Marco Bussadori as vice president of EMEA. Mr. Bussadori, who is based in London, UK, will be responsible for expanding the company’s direct operations in EMEA and developing key partnerships to accelerate adoption of the award-winning Configuresoft Enterprise Configuration Management (ECM) solution.

With enterprise management new license revenue in Europe at more than 2.4 billion dollars for 2006 and projections for approximately 3 billion dollars by 2009 according to a 2005 Gartner Dataquest* report, Configuresoft is well positioned for the rapid European growth building on an established base of customers including Royal Bank of Scotland, Banque de France, F. Hoffmann-La Roche, BP Group and Land Rover. Prior to joining Configuresoft, Mr. Bussadori was instrumental in driving EMEA revenue and growth in the systems management space for a number of software companies including PS’SOFT, Microsoft UK, Marimba, NetIQ and Tivoli across all market segments.

“Demand for Configuresoft solutions throughout Europe is rising, and EMEA is a huge market opportunity for us to accelerate organic growth and expand the distribution channel,” said Mark Rupert, Configuresoft CEO. “Marco’s extensive experience in mature and entrepreneurial environments and his strong sales track record will enable us to build on our success in the core European marketplace and extend our reach across the rest of EMEA.”

“Configuresoft’s ECM solution delivers best-in-class packaged solutions making it practical and efficient to automate critical governance, audit and regulatory compliance processes” said Marco Bussadori. “I’m excited to drive EMEA expansion for Configuresoft and maximize on our unique position at the heart of this dynamic market. Configuresoft’s success and growth in EMEA will be expanded by the direct sales channel, maturing strategic relationships in our established channel, and developing new partnerships to maximize coverage of existing markets as well as launch new ones.”

This appointment follows substantial momentum for Configuresoft, including capture of the “Best Systems Management & Operations” award at Tech Ed 2006 and Best of Tech Ed Europe 2005 for Systems Management. Configuresoft recently launched ECM for Active Directory, extending ECM change detection and control into the Active Directory environment, as well as ECM for Microsoft Exchange and ECM Management Extensions for Assets.
