Configuresoft CSO to Speak at VMware Virtualization Forum 2009

Virtualization Security Expert Dave Shackelford to Address Cost, Configuration and Change Management across the Virtualized Data Center

Colorado Springs, CO — May 19, 2009 — Configuresoft, Inc., a leading provider of enterprise server configuration management solutions for physical and virtual environments, today announced the following special appearance by Configuresoft virtualization technology experts:

WHO: Dave Shackelford, Configuresoft Chief Security Officer and Director of the Center for Policy & Compliance

WHAT: Presentation: “Managing Costs, Configuration & Change across the Virtualized Data Center”

WHEN: 1:15 - 2:15 p.m. CST, Tuesday, May 19

WHERE: VMware Virtualization Forum 2009 – Houston
George R. Brown Convention Center
1001 Avenida de las Americas
Houston, TX 77101

WHY: “Implementing a virtualization strategy can be a complicated and costly process without budgeting and planning for configuration and change management,” Shackelford said. “In this session, I’ll be addressing some of these challenges and strategies for overcoming them that will enable organizations to leverage the efficiency and cost benefits of virtualization while reducing the risks.”
